Hungary's Hello online magazine spends holiday in Santhiya!

Andrea Simonyi, Publisher of Hello online Magazine in Hungary is putting her cooking skills to test in Santhiya's cookery class

March 2009 – Santhiya Resort and Spa was very happy to welcome Hungary's Hello info online magazine publisher, Mrs. Andrea Simonyi and her husband Tamas. The couple truly enjoyed their 7 night stay at the very private, Santhiya Seaview Villa Suite and were impressed by the luxurious, traditional resort and its natural surroundings.

Andrea Simonyi is not only a talented publisher/ editor in chief of the leading Hungarian publication but also an aspiring chef. She put her culinary skills into action with Santhiya's very own gastronomic genius, Khun God Keawpeth during a cookery lesson that overlooked the amazing triple-bay views of Thong Nai Pan. Her accomplishment was extremely well-rewarded and upon concluding the cookery course she dined with her husband on the mouth-watering Thai delicacies. Desiring to explore the island further, the couple hired a Santhiya driver for the day and was amazed at what the island has to offer. Home to an abundance of flora and fauna, Koh Phangan encompasses an enchanting fusion of luscious jungle and never-ending sandy beaches.

Andrea and her husband Tamas were overjoyed about their whole Santhiya experience that she later wrote, "We would like to thank you again for this terrific week. We have been surprised in two ways; the very high quality of the hotel and the level of hospitality you and the hotel rendered to us. Clearly, if we had been left alone we would have seen and tasted half of what there is to experience."

Their holiday has even inspired them to write a series of articles based upon their experiences and the island, which are to be published shortly and can be read at www.helloinfo.com. The lifestyle magazine is one of the leading lifestyle publications in the Hungarian market with a solid daily readership of 10,000-15,000 viewers. The magazine has been on the market for over 3 years and it has become one of the reference sources of information and opinion for the well-heeled, affluent segment of Hungarian society.
