

For Immediate Release:

NEW MISS ENGLAND WINS LUXURY THAI HOLIDAY COURTESY OF JETLIFE AND SANTHIYA

July 2009 - On Monday 20 July 2009, 53 stunning and talented young women from across the country gathered at the London Hilton Metropole, all hoping to be crowned 'Miss England 2009'. The winner was Rachel Christie, an aspiring athlete and 2012 Olympics hopeful. In addition to the prestigious title and opportunity to represent England at the Miss World contest, Rachel, niece of Linford Christie, also won a luxury holiday for two to Thailand courtesy of independent tour operator Jetlife and Santhiya Resort & Spa, on Koh Pha-ngan, Thailand.

Rachel and her guest will jet off to Thailand in September with Jetlife to enjoy a fabulous 10-night holiday at Santhiya Resort & Spa, staying in a luxury villa with beautiful sea views. During their stay, the pair will enjoy mouth watering Thai Cuisine, pampering spa treatments, relaxing on the secluded sandy beach, course warm Thai hospitality.

Pictured above top right is the newly crowned Ms. England (World) Miss Rachel Christie and top left from left to right: Alex Everall, UK representative, Santhiya Resort & Spa; Rachel Christie, Miss England 2009; Eamonn Ferrin, CEO of Allbury Travel Group (Jetlife)

-Ends-