

SANTHIYA RESORT & SPA HELPED ASSISTING BAAN THONG NAI PAN SCHOOL

FEBRUARY 15, 2011: Recently, Santhiya Resort & Spa generously participated in helping Baan Thong Nai Pan School, a local school in Thong Nai Pan, in carrying and transporting equipments such like tables and chairs from Pho Temple (Wat Pho) which is located in Thong Sala to the school to organize the school fair on February 16, 2011.

Baan Thong Nai Pan School will hold an event as their school fair in there would be stalls and booths of food and games and a large sum of tables and chairs are needed.

At 10.30AM, February 15, Santhiya staffs and representatives, along with our trucks, set off to Wat Pho, Thong Sala to collect, carry and transport 150 unites of wooden tables from Wat Pho and Baan Arsom and 1,200 units of plastic chairs from Wat Pho to drop at the school. People in the village volunteered to help carrying the equipments down the truck and placed in the school.

Nevertheless, Santhiya Resort & Spa never failed to remember the kids' importance; toys were being distributed to them as well.

On February 17, 2011, a day after the school fair was held, Santhiya team went by trucks to the school to collect, carry and to help transporting the tables and chairs to return to the temple and Baan Arsom back respectively.

